much it meant to me and to the members of my family that we could lean on the strength of your affection in a moment of real pain and sorrow.

I hope you will both be spared for many years — you have so much to give in love to all of us. What you have already given to me and mine I am deeply grateful for.

Florence

The Rosberg Family

acknowledges with deepest appreciation

your kind expression of sympathy